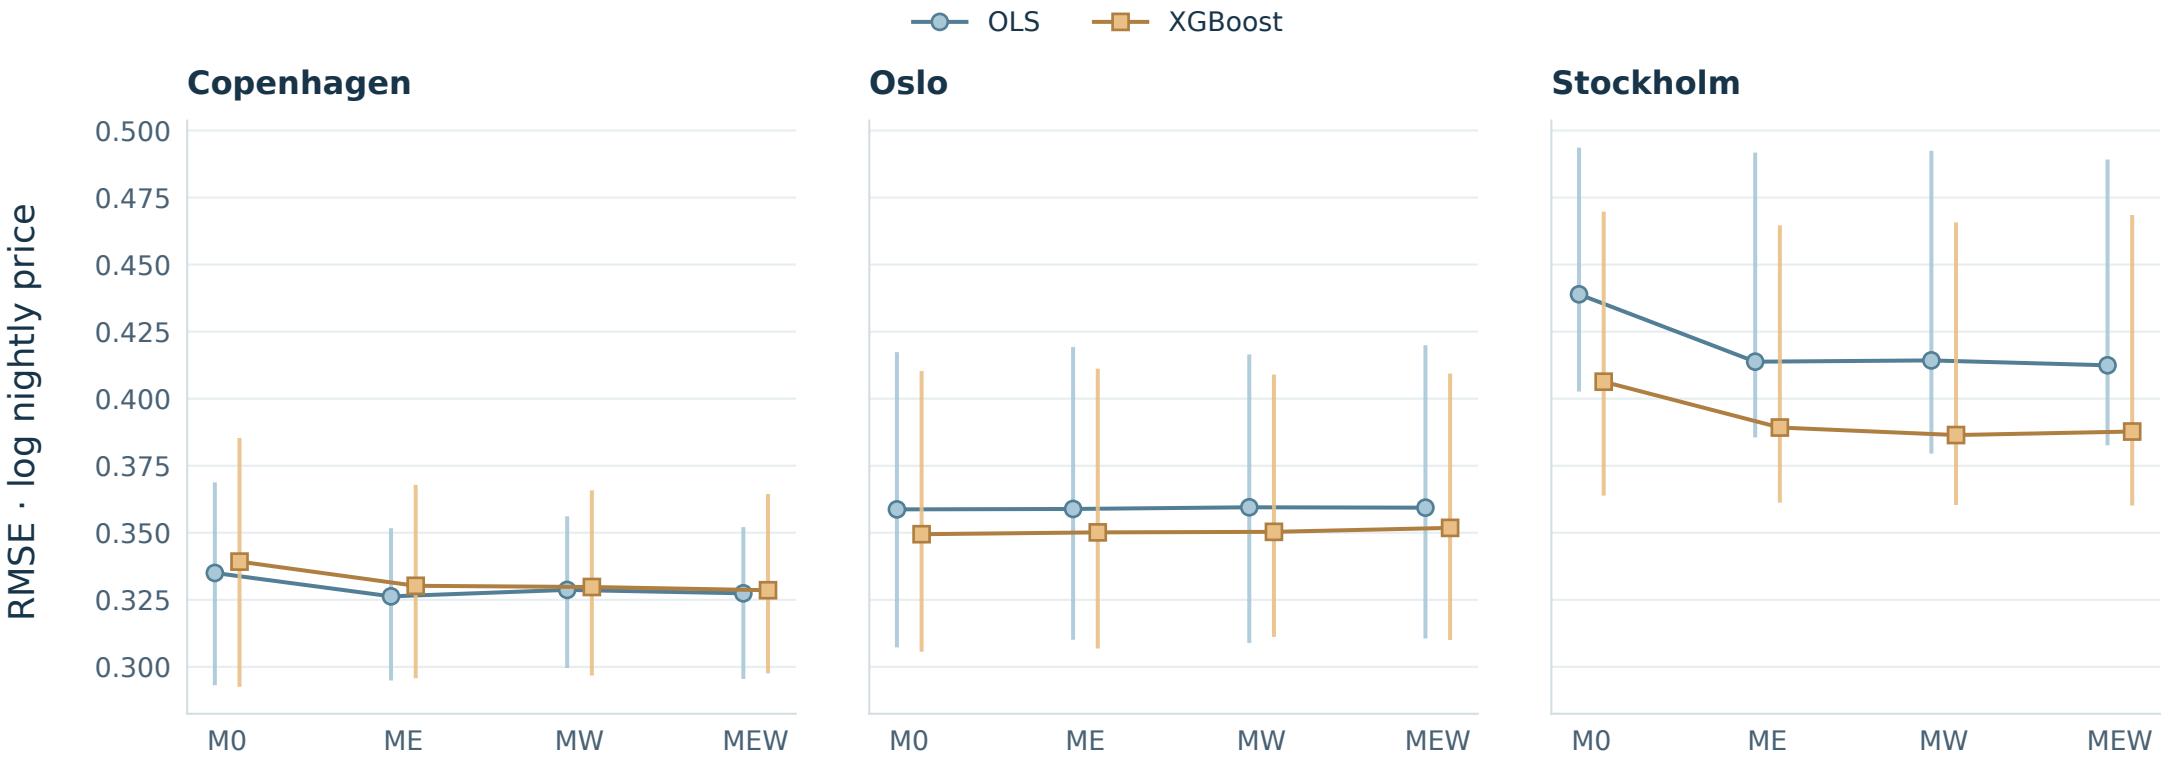
Prediction in geographically unseen neighbourhoods

Pooled held-out error · lower RMSE is better



Points are pooled listing-weighted OOF RMSE. Whiskers are 10th–90th percentiles of unweighted heldout-neighbourhood RMSE, not inferential confidence intervals; pooled points need not equal fold medians. Four models share each city's observations and folds. Native-currency log outcomes; lower error is better.